The Customer is obliged to take care of the location indicated by or on behalf of the Customer, complying with the regulations, work conditions, and/or other requirements laid down by or on behalf of TankOne and/or (semi-)governmental institutions. TankOne should be able to deliver the containers freely. The Customer is liable for all (in)direct, consequential or special damages incurred by TankOne as a result of the non-compliance with the obligations set above. TankOne will never be liable for any damage caused by the delivery to a faulty location. The Customer will safeguard TankOne against all claims from third parties in respect of this obligation.

7.7. TankOne is entitled to take all measures it regards necessary at the expense and for the account of the Customer, when – if she would refrain from this – damage to or loss of object or persons to the Customer, a third party or TankOne is to be feared. If possible TankOne will inform the Customer of the measures taken, failing which the Customer will not be entitled to any claim on TankOne.

8. TANKONE'S OWNERSHIP AND RETENTION OF TITLE

8.1. Any container sold and delivered by TankOne shall remain the property of TankOne until the Customer has fulfilled all its obligations arising from the Agreement and – insofar legally permitted – other agreements with and/or claims from TankOne.

8.2. If the Customer fails to comply with its obligations, the Customer is not entitled to make the sold containers available to third parties, to sell or to encumber them for whatever reason without TankOne's prior written consent. In case of breach of this provision the latest value of the container(s) when new will become immediately due and payable and the Customer will be obliged to assign his claims on third parties on this matter immediately to the Customer.

8.3. If the Customer fails to comply with its obligations or if there is reasonable fear that the Customer will fail to do so, TankOne shall have the right to repossess the sold and delivered container(s) subject to the retention of title from the Customer or from third parties holding the sold container(s) on the Customers' behalf.

8.4. If third parties wish to establish or exercise any right on the container(s) sold and delivered subject to the retention of title clause, the Customer is obliged to notify TankOne as soon as this can be expected in all reasonableness.

8.5. The Customer is under an obligation:

- to take out and maintain insurance for the container(s) delivered subject to the retention of title clause in respect of fire, explosion and water damage, and theft, and to submit the policy of this insurance to TankOne for inspection;

- to label the containers sold and delivered by TankOne subject to the retention of title clause as the property of TankOne;
- to cooperate in any other way on any and all reasonable measures that TankOne wishes to take to protect its retention of title in the containers and that do not obstruct the Customer in any unreasonable manner in the normal course of its business in this respect on pain of a penalty of Euro 2.500,-- a day.

9. INSURANCE

9.1. The Customer shall take out and maintain during the existence of the Agreement a construction all risks insurance or an equivalent insurance, adequately covering at least physical loss, property damage and personal injury caused during by or under the responsibility of (personnel of) the Customer and/or subcontractors of the Customer.

9.2. The insurance policy, taken out in accordance with clause 9.1 hereof, shall be effective at least from the start of the Agreement.

9.3. TankOne will notify the Customer if and when she receives a claim from a third party, which TankOne assumes to be covered by the insurance taken out by the Customer in accordance with this paragraph. The Customer will present the claim to its insurance company as soon as reasonably possible. Parties will cooperate whenever necessary in respect of the presentation and handling of an insurance claim.

10. OBLIGATIONS OF CUSTOMER

10.1. The Customer is responsible for providing and shall provide all permits, licenses and other permissions necessary for the sale, unless agreed otherwise in writing.

10.2. The Customer shall immediately, and, in any event, within 7 (seven) days after acquisition of the ownership, at Customer's expense, remove from the container(s) the reporting marks of TankOne and any other plate, label or other evidence of pre-ownership.

10.3. Pending receipt by TankOne of the full purchase price, the Customer shall not pledge or otherwise encumber the container(s) in favor of any third party.

10.4. The Customer warrants, represents and undertakes to TankOne on a continuing basis throughout the Agreement, and it is a condition to an Agreement, that: (a) neither the Customer nor any period, entity or body on whose behalf or under whose direction the Customer acts, or who it assists, or who directly or indirectly owns or controls the Customer, nor any person to whom the Customer may provide the use or for whom it may operate the containers is a Sanctioned Entity; and (b) entry into and performance of an Agreement is not and will not be a Sanctioned Transaction. It is a condition of an Agreement that the Customer shall not provide, supply, export, re-export or under a purchase option contained in an Agreement transfer or sell the container(s) or any part of it to any Sanctioned Entity, nor use, operate, permit or provide the use of the container(s) or any part of it in any activity, trade, operation or service or for any purpose which is, or could be or result in, a Sanctioned Transaction. The Customer shall communicate the conditions in this article 10.4 in writing to all entities to whom it provides, supplies, exports, re-exports or (if the Customer purchases the container(s)) transfers or sells the container(s) in accordance with an Agreement. The Customer shall indemnify TankOne on demand against any and all sanctions, prohibitions, restrictions, claims, loss or liability whatsoever and howsoever arising directly or indirectly as a result of breach of the warranties, representations, undertakings, conditions and obligations contained in this article 10.4. No act or omission of TankOne shall constitute a waiver of this article 10.4.

10.5. The Customer shall, at no charge, provide TankOne with all assistance TankOne reasonably requires for its performance.

10.6. The Customer shall, at no charge, provide TankOne with any information reasonably required in connection with the performance by TankOne, such as – but not limited to – relevant documentation.

10.7. The Customer shall indemnify TankOne against third party claims for damage caused by the Customer's acts or negligence.

11.3. The Customer shall keep the documentation and any information received from TankOne strictly confidential and shall use the documentation and information solely in respect of the execution of its obligations under the Agreement.

12. PERFORMANCE

12.1. Unless a specific result has been agreed upon in writing, the sole obligation of TankOne will be to perform to its best ability and best endeavor.

12.2. All times, time schedules or periods for the performance by TankOne, contained in the Agreement, or otherwise agreed between parties, shall be an estimate only and shall not be binding upon TankOne. If, however, a time or period has been agreed upon explicitly as binding, then (a) such time or period will not commence until the Customer has fulfilled all its obligations, including payment of all amounts due and supplying of such advance payment and/or security as requested by TankOne, and will not commence until any and all other preconditions have been fulfilled, and (b) such time or period will be suspended during any period that the Customer has ceased to fulfill its obligations and any period that any preconditions are not being fulfilled.

12.3. In the event that the provision of the container is delayed due to circumstances for which the Customer is responsible or due to Force Majeure (as defined in article 14), the price will be increased proportionately.

12.4. In the event that the start or continuation of the Agreement is delayed, due to circumstances for which TankOne is responsible, the Customer will have no other remedy than termination of the Agreement in accordance with these Sales Terms, unless a specific delay compensation has been agreed upon in writing.

13. REPORTING AND COMPLAINTS

13.1. Complaints in respect of services rendered by TankOne and/or performance by TankOne must be lodged in writing by the Customer to TankOne immediately upon the occurrence of the respective service or performance or at least within 14 (fourteen) days after termination of the services and/or performance, failing which it will be deemed that no grievance in respect of services and/or performance by TankOne exists.

14. FORCE MAJEURE

14.1. Force Majeure shall be understood to refer to circumstances, conditions and/or events, which are beyond control of either party, occurring in the absence of any fault of negligence of any party and which cannot be avoided or prevented through the adoption of reasonable measures, which temporarily or permanently prevent the performance of any obligation (with the exception of payment obligations) under the Agreement, such as acts of god; earthquakes, hurricanes, tsunamis, typhoons, explosions, fires, lightning and floods; epidemics; wars (whether declared or not); terrorism; expropriation or intervention by civil or military authorities or other government agencies; riots, insurrections, strikes and industrial action (other than those of the personnel of a party); sabotage; blockades, embargoes, trade sanctions, export and transshipment controls.

14.2. In the event that the performance of obligations under the Agreement is temporarily prevented due to a Force Majeure occurrence, the Force Majeure occurrence will only have the effect of delaying the performance of those obligations (excluding payment obligations) and shall not serve as an excuse for breaching the Agreement.

14.3. In the event that the performance of any of the Customer's obligations under the Agreement is temporarily prevented due to a Force Majeure occurrence, TankOne shall be relieved of the obligation to perform and shall not be liable for any failure to fulfil, its obligations under the Agreement if and to the extent that performance is delayed, prevented or hindered by Force Majeure provided that:

a. TankOne shall notify the Customer within 7 days after the Force Majeure event starts, indicating the expected impact on the schedule for performance of its obligations;

b. the time for delivery of the container(s) (and performance of any other affected obligations of TankOne) shall be extended for the duration of the Force Majeure event; but

c. either party shall be entitled, as a sole and exclusive remedy, to terminate the Agreement by written notice to the other in relation to any container which, as a result of Force Majeure, TankOne is unable to deliver within 60 days after the scheduled delivery date(s).

15. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

15.1. For property damage and personal injury caused by TankOne, TankOne shall take out and maintain during the existence of the Agreement a liability insurance with a limit of 1.500.000 Euro per occurrence for property damage and personal injury caused by TankOne.

15.2. Subject to the limitations set out below, TankOne is responsible for any direct damage caused to the Customer due to attributable shortcomings in the fulfillment of an Agreement and/or due to negligence.

15.3. The liability of TankOne for direct damages is limited to the amount paid out by TankOne's liability insurance. In case the insurance does not pay out (for whatever reason) TankOne's liability shall never exceed the invoice value, exclusive of VAT, of the part of the product or service in question, which part has already been invoiced and/or supplied or rendered. In any event TankOne's liability shall never exceed EUR 10.000,- per event or per sequence of related events.

15.6. In no event will TankOne be liable for any loss, costs or damages due to delay in the performance by TankOne, unless explicitly set out otherwise in writing.

15.7. In any event TankOne is not liable for any occurrence, loss, costs or damages, which is/are or should be covered by the Customer's insurance or which is the result of the Customer's negligence.

15.8. The provisions of this paragraph 15 are also stipulated on behalf of the employees, officers, subcontractors and agents of TankOne.

15.9. Any and all rights of the Customer shall expire if the Customer has not brought an action against TankOne within 12 (twelve) months after the Agreement has ended.

15.10. The Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless TankOne, and all other parties referred to in clause 15.8 hereof, from and against all claims, demands, actions and proceedings asserted and/or instituted against TankOne and/or such other parties for any occurrence, loss, costs, penalties or damages, for which the Customer is liable.

16. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

16.1. TankOne may temporarily suspend its performance, or part thereof, if the Customer has not fulfilled any of its obligations, or has ceased to fulfill any of its obligations, including payment of any amount due and supplying of such advance payment and/or security as requested by TankOne, and/or otherwise in the event of default or anticipated default by the Customer, without any prior notification being necessary.

16.2. TankOne will be entitled to cancel and/or terminate the Agreement with immediate effect, without having to take the matter to court or arbitration, and without being obliged to pay any compensation to the Customer, in the event of any of the following occurrences:

- in the events and circumstances referred to in clause 16.1 hereof, after having put the Customer on notice with a notice period of 10 (ten) days, if the Customer has failed to perform in accordance with the notice and within the time set;

- if the Customer goes into bankruptcy or liquidation, whether compulsory or voluntary, or requests or is granted (temporary) suspension of payment or otherwise has a receiver appointed over its business or assets, without any prior notification being necessary.

16.3. The Customer will not be entitled to terminate the Agreement unless the commencement or continuation of the performance by TankOne is delayed, due to circumstances for which TankOne is responsible, for a period of at least 60 (sixty) days.

16.4. In the event that the Customer cancels or terminates the Agreement – other than as provided for in clauses 16.2 and 16.3 hereof – it will be fully liable to TankOne for all damages sustained and/or to be sustained by TankOne as a result thereof, especially including, but not limited to, loss of profit, loss of use, loss of contracts and/or any other consequential and/or economic and/or indirect loss and/or damages. The minimum amount to be paid by the Customer in case of termination – other than as provided for in clauses 16.2 and 16.3 hereof - will be 10% (ten percent) of the price agreed for the container(s) in the Agreement.

17. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTES

17.1. The Agreement and any further agreements resulting therefrom, including any question regarding the existence, validity or termination thereof, shall exclusively be governed by Dutch law.

17.2. All disputes arising out of or in connection with an Agreement (including any issues relating to its existence, validity or termination) shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in Rotterdam in accordance with the UNUM Arbitration Rules from time to time in force, which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference in this article; provided that a. the seat of the arbitration shall be Rotterdam;

18. MISCELLANEOUS

18.1. An Agreement sets out the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the sale of the container(s) by TankOne to the Customer; supersedes any and all prior representations, understandings and agreements between the parties in relation to its subject matter; and overrides any terms or conditions proposed by the Customer at any time.

18.2. Unless and until a formal revised version of the annex to an Agreement is signed by both parties, any written communications (including those in electronic form) between the parties agreeing to the date of delivery or redelivery, and/or changes, additions, deletions or other details, of any containers shall constitute a valid amendment to the annex to the Agreement.

18.3. Except where stated otherwise, rights and remedies conferred under an Agreement are in addition to, and not exclusive of, rights and remedies under general law.

18.4. If any of the provisions of the Agreement and/or these Sales Terms shall be declared invalid or unenforceable all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

18.5. If TankOne does not exercise any right it may have under the Agreement, this shall not be construed as any waiver of such a right.

18.6. No waiver of any term of Agreement or of these Sales Terms by TankOne shall be deemed to be a further or continuing waiver of any other term thereof.

18.7. TankOne will be entitled to shorten periods of notification – for itself and/or for the Customer – provided for in these Sales Terms, in case of urgency and/or emergency.

18.8. The headings of these Sales Terms are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation thereof.

18.9. If any provision or part of the Agreement or of these Sales Terms is rendered void or unenforceable, for whatever reason, then it shall be void and unenforceable to that extent only and no further. Any such void or unenforceable part of the Agreement or of these Sales Terms will be (deemed to be) replaced by provisions, which are neither void nor unenforceable and which differ as little as possible – in view of the aims of the Agreement and the relevant provisions – from the void and/or unenforceable provisions.
